Prevention and Intervention Programs

For Children

Children who have experienced the trauma of domestic violence will learn non-violent conflict resolution and how to stay safe.

*Eligibility for F&CJS Domestic Violence Intervention and Prevention for Children: Available to children of the Tri-County area who have been subject to or exposed to domestic violence. Location may vary according to referrals. No fee required.
12-week program

For Offenders

Designed for identified domestic violence offenders, we provide education to help decrease violent, controlling behavior. Developing new patterns of behavior through healthy relationship skill building is a part of this process.

*Eligibility for F&CJS Domestic Violence Intervention and Prevention for Offenders: Participation may be court mandated or voluntary. Individuals, courts and/or probation may refer.

Fees: An enrollment fee of $150.00 is required. A weekly group fee of $30.00 is collected prior to each session in order to participate. 26-week program

Anger Management

Anger is a normal emotion that signals something is wrong and change is necessary. What causes intense feelings? How can strong emotions be expressed appropriately? Learn to manage all levels of anger.

*Eligibility for F&CJS Anger Management: Adult participation can be court mandated or voluntary. Referrals are accepted from courts and probation, along with self-referrals. Anger Management is not intended for identified domestic violence offenders. See above.

Fees: An enrollment fee of $50.00 is required. A group fee of $20.00 is collected prior to weekly sessions. 12-week program
